Friday arrived a Mail from France, and another from Flanders.

Madrid, Aug. 9. N. S.

THIRTY Battalions and Forty Squadrons are on the March from several Provinces of the Kingdom towards the Coasts, in order to oppose any Descent from the English. The Court has sent Orders to Cadix, to hasten the fitting out of 12 Men of War there. We have the Mortification that the Register Ship, call'd Notre Dame Royale, which was sail'd from the Canary Islands the Havana fell into the Hands of the English. This Ship was to have carry'd Orders from Court to the Governors of Cuba and Carthage; and as it is the highest Importance that those Governors should know their Instructions, we are assured that the same Orders have been sent by two French Ships to America. The (late) Duke of Ormond gave Orders some days ago to prepare his Equipage; and 'tis said, that on the Point of setting out for Galicia. Some money'd Men have lent the King six Millions of Pieces of Eight, to be repay'd when the Treasure comes from the West-Indies.

The Lawyer who was lately hang'd at the Groyne, executed not only for the Correspondence he held with the English Consul at Port-a-Port, but for a certain Scheme he had form'd to facilitate a Descent by the English on the Coast of Galicia, into which he had drawn several Persons of that and the neighbouring Places, who have likewise been apprehended and punish'd; and it appears by several Depositions, that they had receiv'd great Sums of Money for the Services they were to perform.

Paris, Aug. 31. N. S. According to Letters of the 16th from Brest, there are 18 Men of War in the Road, from whence two are sent out every now and then, which come back again into Port, after 48 Hours Cruise, to bring Intelligence, as 'tis said, when Admiral Norris's Fleet passes the Isles of Ushant. 'Tis reported also, that those 18 Men of War are to carry 6 Months Provisions. The 12 Men of War equip'd at Toulon lie also in the Road, with all their Equipage, Officers, and Ammunition.

The freshest Advices we have from Rome (which are of the 13th N. S. 4 Days before the new Pope was chose) take Notice, that the 32 Cardinals who voted in favour of Cardinal Aldobrandi could not conquer the Obstinacy of those call'd the Zealots, who they remonstrated to them that all the Powers, even the Chevalier de St. George, had declar'd for Cardinal. 'Tis certain that the Emperor had given it in Charge to the Cardinals de Sinzendorf and Colloniz, to favour his Election; that the Cardinals de Rohan, Auvergne, and Tencin, had receiv'd the same Orders from the King of France; that the Cardinals Acquaviva and Belluga likewise declar'd for him in the Name of the King of Spain; that the Kings of Portugal, Poland, the Two Sicilies, and Sardinia, had also charg'd their Cardinals to contribute their good Offices towards the Election of Aldobrandi, and that the Republicks were in the same Way of Thinking, particularly that of Venice, which had left the Cardinals Querini and Rezzonico their Liberty to declare for Cardinal Aldobrandi. The Majority continu'd to favour him. Cardinal Alberoni, who is not in the List of the Zealots, declar'd publicly at one of the Scrutinies, That he did not believe it possible to chuse a better Man than Cardinal Aldobrandi; but they say Cardinal Coscia was on the other Side of the Question.

M. de Maupertuis, of the Royal Academy of Sciences, set out Post last Monday with the King's Leave for Berlin, the King of Prussia having sent him a most complaisant Letter, inviting him to his Court, as follows:

"SIR, It has been my Heart's Desire from the Moment that I came to the Throne to have you here, to give that Form to the Academy at Berlin, which you and none but you can give to it. Come then, and ingraft the Sciences, that they may flourish upon the wild Plant. You have acquainted Mankind with the Form of the Earth: Come and let a King know what a Pleasure 'tis to be fully acquainted with such a Man as you.

FREDERIC.

On the 25th the King declar'd that Cardinal Lambertini, Archbishop of Bologna (of which City he is a Native, and formerly Secretary to the Congregation of the Council of the Inquisition) is elected Pope: And on Saturday last the Pope's Nuncio receiv'd a Confirmation of it by a second Express dispatch'd to his Excellency from Rome. Cardinal Aldobrandi is made the new Pope's Datary (i. e. Secretary of the Presentations to the vacant Benefices) and Cardinal Valenti Gonzaga is made Secretary of State.

The Count de Grammont, a Lieutenant-General, is very ill at Compeigne.

Ratisbon, Aug. 18. N. S. We are again assur'd that the Treaty of Peace with France is to be laid before the Dyet of the Empire To-morrow, and that no other Business will be done till that grand Article is settled; consequently the News from hence may for some time to come deserve Attention; for 'tis not to be doubted but the Electors and Princes will cause a great many Representations to be made upon account of that Treaty; and we know already, that the Protestant States have very serious Remonstrances to make concerning the Clause of the 4th Article of the Peace of Ryfwic, and what thereto relates.

Since the Departure of the Prince de Furstemberg, the Emperor's First Commissioner, we are told that the said Nobleman, being inform'd a little before he went that the Minister of Hesse Cassel was return'd hither, he sent one of his Gentlemen to invite him to his House, for that he had an important Affair to impart to him; but that the latter excus'd himself by saying, 'That if the Article in question was the Imperial Resolution, which was lately read in the three Colleges, concerning the Appeal from Hesse Cassel to the Dyet, of which he had already had sufficient Notice, it was not in his Power to wait upon his Highness, how ambitious soever he was of that Honour on other Accounts.' The Minister did not conclude without adding, 'That the Prince his Master did not use to receive Reprimands by the Canal of his Ministers.' We are impatient to hear what will be said of this Proceeding at the Imperial Court, which in other respects is no wise prepossess'd either in favour of the Hessian Minister or Prince William his Master.

Vienna, Aug. 17. N. S. The Grand Signior has sent the following Presents to the Emperor, viz. a noble Turkish Tent sumptuously imbroider'd with Gold; a very fine Turkish Horse, the Bridle adorn'd with Gold and precious Stones; another fine Arabian Horse, with the like Furniture; two Plumes of Feathers of rich Workmanship, adorn'd with Diamonds; 12 Pieces of Gold Flower'd Stuffs; 15 Pieces of Gold Brocade; 15 more made of the finest Wool in all Asia; 16 Pieces of Silk; a large Silver Basin for the Horses to drink out of; 2 Houplings richly embroider'd with Gold and Silk; 130 Pieces of Constantinopolitan Silk; 150 Pieces of Stuff of India Curtains; 30 fine Oriental Microscopes; 30 Silver Vessels full of precious Amber; 3 Turkey Carpets with Gold Stripes, and adorn'd with precious Stones; 1000 Drams of the Balm of Mecca; a great Quantity of Essences of the East and Persia; 100 Bottles of Silver full of Hungary Water; 150 other Bottles full of a rare Spirit call'd Osgoge; all which Presents are valu'd at 160000 Turkey Crowns.

Tho' the Turkish Ambassador is perfectly recover'd of his Indisposition, yet the Time of his Publick Entry is not yet fix'd, because fresh Difficulties are started every Day on account of the Ceremonial. 'Twas at first agreed that he should conform to that which was observ'd here in 1719. but he afterwards receded from that Agreement, pretending he had Instructions from the Divan to demand the same Treatment as the late Count de Virmond had at Constantinople in 1719. when he refus'd to make his Publick Entry between two Commissioners appointed by the Porte, and obtain'd several other Marks of Distinction, which the Divan endeavours to represent as owing to the Success of the Imperial Arms in the Campaigns of 1717 and 1718. in order to give the Porte a Handle for demanding the same Advantages now. The Turkish Ambassador insinuates, that he might possibly have departed from those Instructions of the Divan if the Grand Vizier Ayvas Mahmet Pacha his only Patron was still in Place; but that Achmet Pacha, who never lik'd him being promoted to his Post, he was under a Necessity of keeping strictly to the Letter of all the Instructions that have been given him. The French Ambassador, the Marquis de Mirepoix, together with M. de Webber, Referendary of the Council of War, went last Saturday to the Turkish Ambassador's Camp at Schwechat, and had a long Conference with him, but we see by the Consequences that it was to no Purpose. Two Days ago a private Conference was held upon that Affair at the House of the Great Chancellor the Count de Sinzendorf, as was Yesterday another in Presence of the Emperor. We are assur'd however that the Ambassador's Publick Entry will be defer'd till the Return of a Courier that is to be sent to Constantinople: In the mean time Provisions have been sent to his Camp again, both for Man and Horse, enough to serve them three Weeks.

Petersbourg, July 22. O. S. Baron Mingden, Vice-President of the College of Justice for the Province of Livonia, has been declar'd President of the College of Commerce, in the Room of Muskin Puskin, one of the late State Criminals, who is sent into perpetual Banishment. The Czarina has likewise made him a Prefect of the late chief Criminal Wolinski's House. The Privy Councillor Munich, Brother to the Field Marshal, has also been made Director of the Mint, in the Room of Count Goloskin, who is soliciting for Leave to travel on account of his ill State of Health.

Stockholm, Aug. 1. The Assembling of the States of this Kingdom was propos'd last Week in the Senate by Count Gyllenberg, and after a long Speech which he made on that Occasion, setting forth the Necessity of their Meeting, it was unanimously resolv'd upon, without fixing the Time, by the King and Nine Senators then present, which makes the Majority of the whole Body. Messengers were dispatch'd the next Day to the absent Senators in different Provinces, to collect their Votes as usually practis'd in Cases of great Consequence.

They write from Dresden of the 10th O. S. that the Earls of Holderness and Strafford, who are at their Travels thro' the Empire, arriv'd lately at Mau-sceb-ling, where M. Villiers the British Envoy Extraordinary presented them to the King and Queen, with whom they had the Honour to dine.

Princess of Orange continue at Dillembourg.

And from Berlin of the 12th, that 'twas determin'd by the King of Prussia to return from Cleves by way of Hanover. 'Tis added, that the Free Masons are beginning to erect Lodges in several other Towns, like that at Berlin.

The British Consul at Lisbon has declar'd, that the Rumours spread there of an Epidemic Sickness at Gibraltar are absolutely groundless.

They write from Galicia and Biscay, that the Spanish Court is making strict Search there to find out whether the English have settled any Correspondence in those Provinces.

The Letters of the 5th Instant from Stockholm say, the King of Sweden has been confin'd to his Chamber at Carlsberg four Days by a Cold, and that the Count de Horn is very ill at his Country-seat.

Those of the 9th from Hanover say, there is so much Business at the Secretary's Office there, that neither the Clerks, nor even Lord Harrington himself, has Leisure to partake of the Diversions of the Court, especially since the Arrival of the Emperor's Ambassador Count d'Offlein; and that 'tis expected that before his Majesty returns to Great Britain he will not only have settled all particular Interests with Prussia, &c. but have put the last Hand to a Treaty for securing the Empire against every thing that may be likely to disturb its Tranquillity.

The King proposes to set out the 12th of next Month for Goerde to meet the King of Prussia, who is to be there about that time in his Return from Cleves.

The new Pope is 65 Years of Age, being born the 31st of March 1675, and he was created a Cardinal by Pope Benedict XIII. at a Creation by his Holiness in 1726, when he nominated him among others in Petro, but did not declare him till the Beginning of 1728.

derton, who was lately appointed chief Surgeon of the Hospital-ship station'd at that Harbour.

Last Friday Morning Sir John Norris sail'd from Torbay with the Fleet under his Command, and about 200 outward-bound Merchant ships.

Last Thursday Night died after a long Illness John Seymour, Esq; a Gentleman of a large Estate in the County of Wilts.

The same Day died at Frogpool in Kent Thomas Frederick, Esq; Member of Parliament for Shoreham in Sussex and one of the Trustees for the Colony of Georgia.

On Friday Night died the Lady — Obreyen, youngest Daughter of the Earl of Inchiquin.

On Saturday his Grace the Duke of Dorset set out for Dover, to wait the Arrival there of his Duchess, who accompanied the Princess Mary to Cassel and afterwards to Hanover, from whence her Grace went to Namur to visit her Father General Collier, who is Governor of that Place.

On Saturday Night last the Messenger dispatch'd the Day before by the Lords of the Admiralty to Commissioner Hughs at Portsmouth, as mention'd in our last, arriv'd at the Admiralty-office, and brought an Account that Admiral Balchen and Commodore Anson were sail'd with the Squadron under their Command, as was likewise Lord Cathcart with the Transports, &c.

of Authors cited by him, and a new and more copious Index to the whole Work.

Sir WALTER RALEIGH's History of the World is a Work of so vast a Compass, such endless Variety, that no Genius, but one adventurous as his own, durst have undertaken that great Design. I do not apprehend any great Difficulty in collecting and common-placing a Universal History from the whole Body of Historians; that is nothing but mechanic Labour. But to digest the several Authors in his Mind, to take in all their Majesty, Strength, and Beauty, to raise the Spirit of meaner Historians, and to equal all the Excellencies of the best, is Sir Walter's peculiar Praise. His Style is the most perfect, the happiest, and most beautiful of the Age he wrote in, majestic, clear and manly; and he appears every-where so superior, rather than unequal to his Subject, that the Spirit of Rome and Athens seems to be breathed into his Work.

convenience, or the least Purging, which by an unaccountable Infirmity is generally advised, although always found rather to increase confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

toms by which the Scurvy imitates and often lies concealed under the Appearance of the Rheumatism, and many other Disorders.

And for strengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, causing a regular and easy Digestion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Disorders of the first Passage (whether pro-that besides infallibly curing the Scurvy in all its Shapes and Appearances, they also assuredly and immediately cure the Green-Sickness in Virgins, Worms of all Kinds in young or old, and almost other Chronick Diseases, (which are chiefly occasioned by Indigestion and flatulent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and certainly
